As an intern, he or she will have an amazing experience in learning the culture and seeing how the Father is moving in this country. It will definitely be an experience of a lifetime where the interns will be stretched and challenged. As they are experiencing this new culture, the host missionary will be walking side by side, mentoring and helping them to grow spiritually.

P.S.

If you are in need of finances to supplement some of the cost, the host missionary will help find English tutoring jobs for the interns.
